

Future of Learning

Saturday, December 10 at The Laundry
3359 26th St, San Francisco

5PM FUTURE OF LEARNING

How do we accumulate knowledge?
What is the key to understanding?
How can we create a culture of curiosity?
Young learners are putting thought-leaders in academia and technology on the hot seat with their questions.

Young learners asking questions to our panel guests:

Ralph Eichler, President Emeritus of ETH Zurich
Russ Angold, Co-Founder and CTO of Ekso Bionics
Andy Matuschak, Co-Director of Long-term Research at Khan Academy
David Stavens, founding CEO of Udacity
